A GREAT BUSINESS COMES FROM A GREAT PLACE

Short Term Rental in Kidder Township

What is a Green Light Community?

Green = Short-term rental of single family homes is approved with clear rules and regulations and allowed throughout the municipality. Restrictions likely apply and you should be well aware of the rules and regulations.

This home Operated as an AirBnB.

When you enter Kidder Township you are entering the front door of the Pocono's.

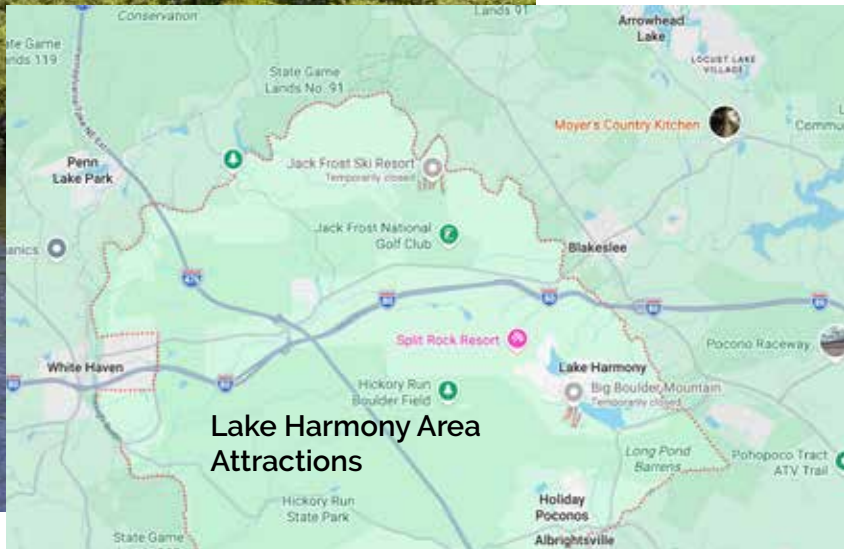

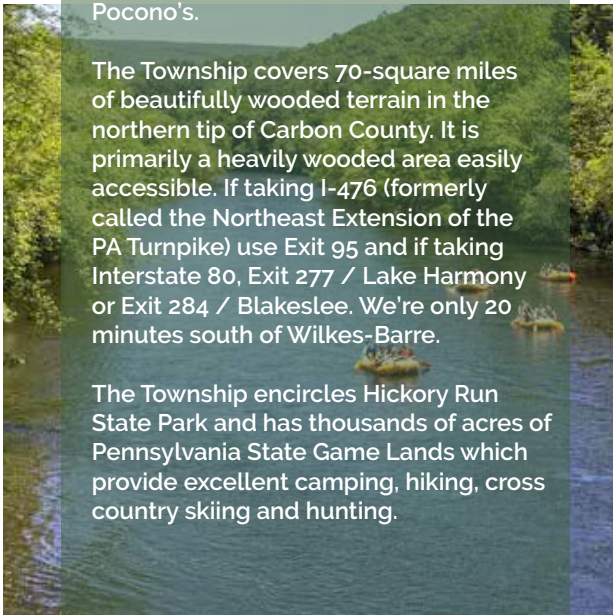

The Township covers 70-square miles of beautifully wooded terrain in the northern tip of Carbon County. It is primarily a heavily wooded area easily accessible. If taking I-476 (formerly called the Northeast Extension of the PA Turnpike) use Exit 95 and if taking Interstate 80, Exit 277 / Lake Harmony or Exit 284 / Blakeslee. We're only 20 minutes south of Wilkes-Barre.

The Township encircles Hickory Run State Park and has thousands of acres of Pennsylvania State Game Lands which provide excellent camping, hiking, cross country skiing and hunting.

Home to the Big Two, Jack Frost and Big Boulder Ski Resorts and the popular Lake Harmony area. Short-term rentals are allowed in Kidder Township, a permit is needed. An annual inspection is also required. Revisions to Kidder Township's STR Ordinance have been adopted, but Kidder Township remains one of the most cooperative places in which to run a vacation rental business. There are about 675 Short-term Rental Licenses issued by Kidder Township, Carbon County.

For more information can be found on the Kidder Township website: <https://kiddertownship.org>

This regulatory framework is part of the broader efforts in the Pocono region to balance the benefits of short-term rentals with community standards and safety. Owners must stay informed about ongoing changes and updates to regulations, as non-compliance can lead to fines or revocation of the operating license. For detailed and up-to-date information on obtaining permits and understanding the full scope of regulations, property owners should consult the Township website or contact the township.

About The Mark Shay Team of Pocono Vacation Home Sales!

We are Not Your Normal Real Estate Team.

We are four licensed realtors and one transaction coordinator who act as one. I oversee every client, have input on client searches and am there to write up each offer, present it and negotiate on client's behalf. Our team is the key to bringing new listings to the Pocono Vacation Home Sales Team. We keep things flowing by working together on the Listing and the Buying side and each member is an employee of our company, working as one.
